Voice of the Voiceless

VoV is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that amplifies the voices of exLGBT. The mission of Voice of the Voiceless is to defend the rights of former homosexuals, individuals with unwanted same-sex attraction, and their families. We also support the faith-based community and work actively in the United States to defend the constitutional inalienable rights of all Americans to share their views on faith and homosexuality in the public forum. We support similar international efforts and provide assistance, whenever possible, to individuals and organizations abroad who align with our mission and goals.

Agape First Ministries

Agape First Ministries equips churches and ministry leaders to minister to those struggling with their sexual and gender identity, while standing for truth and the healing power of the Gospel that is available to all.

We desire to make the name of Jesus famous by discipling the nations regarding His transforming power, so that the saints will persevere in love for God.

Sodomy

is a biblical term often used to denounce sex between people of the same gender.

The word comes from the city of Sodom, where people were infamously sinful, wicked, and so offensive to God, that He destroyed the entire city after negotiating and finding only one rightful man living there. The word has been used through the ages to refer to sexual behaviors that different societies find abhorrent, most frequently sex between men. The word's use was on the rise for about a century but peaked around the 2000s, probably as a result of queerness becoming slowly accepted and different countries legalizing same-gender marriage and issuing different protections around discrimination. Nowadays, the word is almost exclusively used by homophobes for the sake of their bigotry, as the word's biblical origin can give their arguments weight among more conservative audiences. Also known as buggery.

Romans 10:9-10

*that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead,
you will be saved;
for with the heart a person believes,
resulting in righteousness,
and with the mouth he confesses,
resulting in salvation. For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in Him will not be disappointed.”

Plan of Salvation

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God – Romans 3:23

For the wages of sin is death,
but the free gift of God is eternal life
in Christ Jesus our Lord. - Romans 6:23

But God demonstrates
His own love toward us,
in that while we were yet sinners,
Christ died for us - Romans 5:8

Psalm 51:10

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from Your presence
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of Your salvation
And sustain me with a willing spirit.

Ephesians 2:9-10

For by grace you have been saved
through faith;

and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God;

not as a result of works, so that no
one may boast.

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good
works,
which God prepared beforehand
so that we would walk in them.

2 Cor. 7:10

For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation, but the sorrow of the world produces death.

Transformation

And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what the will of God is, that which is good and acceptable and perfect. – Romans 12:2

So Jesus was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, “If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine; and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.” – John 8:31-32

John 16:13-15

But when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of Mine and will disclose it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine; therefore I said that He takes of Mine and will disclose it to you.

As we are conformed to
the image of Christ,
God is glorified.

Our eternal destiny in God

Ephesians 5:31-32

“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.” This is a profound mystery—but I am talking about Christ and the church.

1 Corinthians 6:9-11

9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, 10 nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God. 11 Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

James 4:3-10

You ask and do not receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it on your pleasures. You adulteresses, do you not know that friendship with the world is hostility toward God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. Or do you think that the Scripture speaks to no purpose: “He jealously desires the Spirit which He has made to dwell in us”?

James 4:3-10 (cont)

But He gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, "God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Submit therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. Be miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning and your joy to gloom. Humble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

Proverbs 10:17, 22, 24

He is on the path of life who heeds instruction, But he who ignores reproof goes astray. It is the blessing of the Lord that makes rich, And He adds no sorrow to it. What the wicked fears will come upon him, But the desire of the righteous will be granted.

War on Testimony

Matthew Grech first shot to fame as a contestant on Malta's X Factor, but landed in controversy when he shared his perspective on the show.

But now a film about his life, 'Once Gay' will be shown in Townsend Presbyterian Church in Belfast at 7pm tomorrow, in association with NI group Core Issues.

Two LGBT groups said they will picket the film and criticized the Presbyterian Church for hosting it so soon after new moderator Rev William Henry said that he "abhors homophobia".

I didn't have gay therapy, says Christian convert Matthew Grech

A man who says his Christian conversion led to him leaving homosexuality has defended a film about his life which is to be picketed by protestors in Belfast this week.

From Therapists to Christ

"Our research shows that today, the main driving forces behind these harmful practices are religious leaders and prejudice. Many have ended up seeking 'conversion therapy' for themselves as they perceived their sexual orientation and gender identity in conflict with their religion," report author Lucas Ramón Mendos says.

- "The amendment failed, 34-30, when no majority Republicans voted in favor. Republican state Sen. Scott Jensen said his "no" vote would leave him feeling sick, and suggested he was only doing it because of threats that fellow Republicans would torpedo an entire budget bill if the conversion therapy issue got attached to it.
- "I understand my caucus isn't where I'm at, and I can understand that. I don't think we're done on this issue yet," said Jensen, R-Chaska. "But when I drive home tonight, I'm pretty sure I'll be nauseated all the way."

MN Conversion Therapy Ban Feb 2020

- Gov. Tim Walz and LGBTQ activists rallied at the state Capitol on Friday to demand that the Republican-controlled Minnesota Senate pass a ban on “conversion therapy” for minors, a discredited practice that seeks to turn gay people straight.
- Dibble said in an interview that he plans to ask the Senate leadership to allow hearings on his bill. He said “a number” of his Republican colleagues in the Senate want to vote yes. He named Sens. Scott Jensen, of Chaska, and Eric Pratt, of Prior Lake, as Republicans he’s working with who could vote for it if they had the chance.

CBS: With little advance warning, Democratic Sen. Scott Dibble, of Minneapolis, tried to pull his bill out of a committee, where it has languished for two years without a hearing, and tee it up for a Senate floor vote. The vote was 34-31, but that was short of the required 41 votes under Senate rules.

Sens. Karin Housley, of Stillwater, and Zack Duckworth, of Lakeville, broke with their fellow Republicans to support Dibble's effort, as did Sen. David Tomassoni, an independent from Chisholm who caucuses with the GOP.

Democratic Gov. Tim Walz last year signed an executive order banning conversion therapy for minors, but called on the Legislature to make the ban permanent.

Surrogacy Wars: Notes for a Radical Theory of the Politics of Reproduction

Pablo Pérez Navarro, PhD

Centre for Social Studies of the University of Coimbra, Coimbra, Portugal

ABSTRACT

State regulation of reproductive practices secure the heterosexual infrastructure of kinship through means that include elitization, institutional hostility, and plain criminalization. This article draws on personal experiences of gay fathers through transnational gestational surrogacy in Spain to show the extent to which that is the case even in those contexts where some gay and lesbian kinship rights are available. Public and academic debates on the possible regulation of gestational surrogacy will be analyzed through the lens of Gayle Rubin's intervention in the sex wars that divided feminism in the 1980s, with which contemporary anti-surrogacy movements show crucial genealogical links. In addition, in order to unearth some gendered assumptions on the ahistorical link between surrogacy and motherhood, the role of the gestational carrier will be read in relation to the figure of the "bad mother."

Limiting Queer Reproduction in Hungary

Judit Takács

Abstract

This article discusses several limiting factors that affect queer reproduction desires and practices in present-day Hungary, including distorting media representations, legislative frameworks, and social inequalities. It draws on relevant legal developments and results from previous research studies. The article focuses on how Hungarian LGBTQI people can resist the social norms and policies of heteronormatively prescribed childlessness resulting from normative expectations that non-heteronormative reproduction must be limited as much as possible, and highlights that better-off couples and individuals have more chance to realize their fertility plans through adoption, surrogacy or accessing ART than those in a more disadvantageous situation. In this context queer reproduction can also be seen as potentially contributing to the re-stabilization of reproduction as a feature of privilege.

The American Founding Was Not Libertarian Liberalism - The American Mind

The New Right renews Americanism, writes Matthew J. Peterson.

Libertarian
Liberalism =
Licentiousness

<https://americanmind.org/features/why-the-new-right-rises/the-american-founding-was-not-libertarian-liberalism>

Christine Bolan

Actually, it is a misconception that "gay rights" is a part of the LCR platform. We do not not discuss sexuality or what members do in their own bedrooms. I know plenty of straight conservatives whose behavior in the bedroom is anything but conservative, so I do not understand how that is to be considered a litmus test for affiliation with the party. Does the Republican Party have guidelines for what types of sex are allowed or disallowed, in order to be a member? At the end of the day, the only agenda of LCR is getting Republicans elected and fighting back against to woke mob, as to protect our conservative values, regardless of sexual orientation or preference.

Constitution Party of Minnesota

Christine Bolan LCR are wolves in the hen house. Their core identity is based in licentiousness. It is inescapable fact. The motives are impossible to prove, and one has to believe LCR has some impossible cognitive dissonance against their identity as a group to support "conservatives." At face value the group is an enemy within the party. Regardless if they help out, a poison pill is waiting and will drop at some point. That's how their gaslighting works. We aren't fools in the Constitution Party. We won't negotiate or welcome that which we know leads to tyranny- LGBTQ 'rights' are religious beliefs that lead to destruction of liberty and actual freedom.

Christine Bolan

Constitution Party of Minnesota I am a straight board member of MNLCR, and I think that you are speaking out of turn. Based on your comments, I can clearly see that you have never taken the time to have a conversation with any member of LCR. It's sad that you would rather pick fights with members of your own party than actually accomplish the ultimate goal of getting Republicans elected. If you haven't noticed, Minnesota is getting more blue by the day, so maybe your efforts would be better focused on fighting the radical left agenda, rather than fighting the people who think exactly the same way that you do.

Constitution Party of Minnesota

Christine Bolan lol, you do realize this is THE CONSTITUTION PARTY, not the Republican party, right? You're not representing our virtues. There is no need to talk to people who deny nature's laws and Nature's God and live unrestrained lives of licentiousness. Minnesota is going more blue in part because of denial of our Creator and the virtues which made our country great. Sodomy brings death, not life to our state. Your LCR group is the poison pill we won't take in the Constitution Party. You are delusional if you think we think exactly the same. If we did think the same, you would repent of your support of sodomy and gay identity which is dehumanizing to all who practice it and unbecoming of those who support it.

Critical Questions

1. Will we honor our Creator and defend The Constitution?
2. Will we continue to play church and politics and ignore the drastic issues facing us today?
3. Will we continue as normal while our children are destroyed by the enemy?
4. Is there any way out of this darkness?

Psalm 51:10

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from Your presence
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
Restore to me the joy of Your salvation
And sustain me with a willing spirit.

The Lord's end time strategy is the restoration of the Family

*"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet Before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.
And he will turn
The hearts of the fathers to the children,
And the hearts of the children to their fathers, Lest I come and strike the earth with a curse."*
